The overall epidemiological curves for the past two influenza seasons in Carson City, Douglas and Lyon Counties were similar, excepting a 3% decrease in reports from 2010-2011 to 2011-2012. However, the types of influenza reported were quite different for the past two seasons. 2011-2012 saw an 82% increase in Influenza A, Seasonal H1 reported to CCHHS while there was a 78% decrease in the number of Influenza B, rapid test only as compared to the 2010-2011 season.